

Service-Learning Research Excellence Award Nomination for 2017 Awards

2018 Award Nomination Deadline: November 30, 2017

Selection announced at beginning of Spring Semester.

Purpose

The Service-Learning Research Excellence Award was established in 2011 to recognize UGA faculty for excellence in research related to or resulting from academic service-learning. Academic service-learning integrates relevant community service with academic coursework and structured reflection to enhance student learning, develop civic responsibility, and address community needs. Award recipients receive a $2,500 faculty development award.

Eligibility

All full-time UGA faculty members in any career track are eligible to apply.

Nomination Process

Nominations by deans and department heads, faculty colleagues, or self-nominations will be accepted. Joint nominations for co-authored or collaborative studies by UGA faculty will be considered and should be submitted as a single nomination. All materials should be converted to a single PDF file, assembled in the following order, and emailed to the Office of Service-Learning (osl@uga.edu) by the stated deadline. Nomination packets should include the following items:

1. Nomination Cover Sheet (See attached form)*;
2. Descriptive listing of service-learning research conducted, including: research question, methodology, findings, and resultant publications/ presentations (See attached form);
3. A personal statement (no more than 2 pages) explaining how this service-learning research relates to the nominee's overall research agenda, and the impact of this work on their discipline, students, or community;
4. Abbreviated (no more than 5 pages) CV, emphasizing service-learning activities*; and
5. Two letters of support (no more than 2 pages each), from any combination of department head/dean, current/former student, colleague, or community partner, addressing relevant activities, outcomes, or impacts of the nominee's academic service-learning assessment, research, or evaluation.

For joint nominations, include for each nominee.*
